Webinar on

“Diary in a Summer of Athletic Sweat and Machine Cool: Sharing from a Private Equity-Style Investor with a CFA Lens”

Speaker :

Dr. Alvin Ho, CFA

Private Equity Investor, CFA HK (President), Sports Economics (Lecturer)

Guest Moderator :

Mr. Matthew Ip

(Course Code : 122024)

Highlight:

This sharing delves into the intricate interplay of marquee sporting spectacles such as Euro 2024 and the Olympics, heatwaves, and the ascendancy of AI on investment, a domain of paramount importance for investment, finance, and accounting professionals alike.

Observations on the economic impacts of major sporting and entertainment events are highlighted, spotlighting the capture of digital footprints and their potential to boost consumer spending. The talk will touch briefly on the increasing risks of climate change, emphasizing the necessity of integrating climate risk into investment strategies. The presentation also explores the burgeoning role of AI and machine learning in investments, offering insights from the perspective of a seasoned CFA charterholder.

By combining sports economics, ESG, and technological trends, this talk aims to inspire discussions and dialogues with investment and accounting executives, both seasoned and aspiring, to reflect on these dynamic landscapes, ultimately fostering sustainable and profitable career outcomes.

About the Speaker:-

Dr. Alvin Ho, CFA

Private Equity Investor, CFA HK (President), Sports Economics (Lecturer)

Dr. Alvin Ho is an experienced investment principal with a track record in private equity. He currently splits his time between managing a portfolio of private investments and institutional investing on one end, and handholding start-ups and grown-ups seeking new iterations on the other. In addition, he serves as a board member for listed companies and NGOs and is a member of investment committees for funds and platforms. Previously the legal and executive representative for the local currency funds incorporated in Beijing and Chengdu, He was the Head of China for a pan-regional private equity growth fund.

Alvin holds a Ph.D. in Finance from the Shanghai University of Finance and Economics, and master's degrees from Tsinghua University and London Business School. He has authored three books in Chinese on the economics of sports. He is the chief editor and contributed two essays to RISE FROM CRISES, a publication of CFA Society Hong Kong.
